

Frontiers of Faith
McGill Newman Centre
"Mary, The Woman"
#963-975
March 28, 1996

I. Mary's Vocation as Blessed Virgin

- A. Virgin as keeping faith intact #964, 273, 506, 507
- B. Immaculate Virgin, free from original sin, assumed into Heaven body and soul #966, 497-499, 505
- C. Devotion to Blessed Virgin leads to Adoration of God #971
 - 1. through Liturgical feasts
 - 2. through Marian prayers like the Rosary

II. Mary's Vocation as Holy Mother

- A. Mother of God, Mother of Christ-the head, Mother of the Church- the body #963, 973, 485, 494, 495, 507
- B. Mother of members of the Church #965,
- C. Mother in the order of grace #968, 969, 491, 509
- D. Mother through the mediation of Christ #970, 487
- E. Mother as the new Eve #975, 488, 511, 726

III. Mary's Vocation as Eschatological Icon #1161

- A. Model of faith and charity, exemplar of the Church #967
- B. Mary as pilgrim guide who has reached the Kingdom #964, 972
- C. Mary is the perfect image of the Church #972, 829, 724
- D. Mary is the sign of certain hope 972
- E. Mary, as Assumed into Heaven anticipates our resurrection 974
- F. The Marian dimension of the Church as Bride of Christ, the Bridegroom #773
- G. The Marian dimension of consecrated life as eschatological sign 923, 926, 932
 - A. One model, multiple charisms
 - B. One model, multiple vocations

Dr. Prudence Allen, RSM